Cresco Bank Expands Lending Team

Harold Noe, Agriculture and Commercial Loan Officer, to provide credit to farmers and businesses.

Cresco Bank & Trust Company recently added Cresco native, Harold Noe Jr. to help with the growing needs of the company.

“Harold Noe joins an already outstanding and professional group of lenders that demonstrate our ongoing commitment to folks in the area,” said Donna Thomas, president of Cresco Bank & Trust Co., a division of Decorah Bank & Trust Co.

“We are excited to have Harold join us to better serve our customers needing loan assistance. ”

Thomas adds, “Harold comes to us with over 30 years experience in owning and operating his own ag related business. With his background and commitment to this area, Harold will solidify our promise in providing quality service that our customers have come to expect.”

Noe has lived in the Cresco area his entire life and now welcomes people to visit with him about their loan needs. Noe comments, “I am excited to have the opportunity to build and develop meaningful relationships with new and existing customers. I look forward to your calls and will be thrilled to help you with your lending needs.” He and his wife Carolyn have four grown children.
